SUGAR FACTORY
WILL OPEN UP
NEXT MONDAY

FORCE OF 100 MEN WILL BE
BUSY MANUFACTURING SU-
GAR FOR TWO MONTHS.

Fallon's beet sugar factory will probably be running full blast next Monday. This eventuality is contingent upon the receipt of ordered supplies now en route, such as lime rock, etc., the delay of which would postpone the starting of operations. But, all things moving smoothly, the present force of 30 artisans, now employed in tuning the factory up and getting its machinery unlimbered, ready for actual work, will be increased to 100 next Monday, divided into two shifts of 50 men each, who will see that the various functions attending the beet from its entrance into the factory by way of the sluices until its commercial value has been extracted and placed in the warehouse, are properly attended to.

The campaign will last, in all probability, about two months, and during this time the beets from this and adjoining valleys will be converted into sugar and pulp, the farmers will be paid and made happy and the sugar will be finding its way into outside markets.

One condition favorable to the 1913 campaign has to do with the left-over brown sugar and syrup from the 1912 campaign. Last year $20,000 worth of these commodities charged to the 1912 expenses were left to be refined this fall, though approximately this much unrefined sugar and syrup will be left unrefined at the conclusion of this campaign. When the machinery stops this value remains in left-over product, which cannot be run through without unwarranted expense.

Much depends upon the success of the impending campaign. It will really decide the fate of Fallon's factory. If, with the maximum product, which has been reached this year, after two previous trials with resultant losses, this campaign proves unprofitable, the rehabilitation of the local enterprise may not be attempted again for several years, or until local and outside conditions become more propitious for the industry in this section.—Churchill Standard.

HARVESTER TRUST SUIT COMES UP
FOR HEARING IN THE FEDERAL COURT

(By Associated Press.)
ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 1.—The suit of the United States against the International Harvester company to dissolve it will come on for hearing in the United States district court here before Circuit Judges Sanborn, Hook and Smith on next Monday. In its petition, which was filed April 30, 1912, the government alleges that the International Harvester company was organized in 1902 as a trust, in violation of the Sherman law; that its purchase of the plants, properties and business of the McCormick, Deering, Warder, Bushnell & Glessner and Milwaukee companies created in that company a monopoly of the business in binders, mowers, rakes and binder twine in the United States; and that, in its business methods and practices, the company had increased its prices to the grave injury of the farmers, and had coerced dealers and eliminated competitors.

The company, in its answer filed August 5, 1912, admitted the purchase of the harvester properties and business of the five vendor companies, but denied that the company was organized for any unlawful purpose or that such purchase gave it a monopoly in the harvester trade, or that it had increased prices, or that its business methods and practices had injured the farmers or the dealers, or eliminated competitors.

The taking of evidence on behalf of the government began at Chicago on September 16, 1912, before Robert S. Taylor, examiner. The government called witnesses at hearings held in Chicago, New York, St. Louis and St. Paul.

On behalf of the harvester company witnesses were called at hearings held at Omaha, Neb., Wichita, Kan., Kansas City, Mo., Sioux Falls, S. D., St. Paul, Minn., Pittsburgh, Pa., and Chicago.

The taking of evidence was completed on June 27, last. The record returned to the court by the examiner consists, with the exhibits, of 18 printed volumes of about 600 pages each.

This case is believed to be a record, both in the number of witnesses examined and in the short time taken in preparing the case for hearing.

Counsel representing the government are Edwin P. Grosvenor, special assistant to the attorney general of the United States, and Joseph R. Darling; and for the defendants, Judge William D. McHugh of Omaha and John P. Wilson and Edgar A. Bancroft of Chicago.

DEMOCRATS WILL PUT UP BARTLETT

FORMER CONGRESSMAN IS TO MAKE BATTLE FOR NEW-LANDS' PLACE.

CARSON CITY, Oct. 31.—At last the cat is out of the bag and the aspirations of George Bartlett have been made known. From good political authority it is stated that the former congressman is a candidate for United States senator and will make the fight against Newlands. For a time it was believed that Bartlett would enter the lists and would be the man to make the fight against Newlands, backed by that portion of the democratic party which feels that the time for a change has arrived. During Newlands' visit to the state it is reported that he received information which has caused him to believe that Bartlett is to be the candidate, and took steps to head off the announcement of the anti-Newlands' candidate. Bartlett has been urged by many of his democratic friends to make the fight, as it is believed that this is the opportune time to relegate Newlands to civil life, and the antagonism that has grown stronger and stronger during the past few years is now reaching the climax.

Appetite tempters, everywhere. The bakery wise. You know full well that some bakers carry a bigger line of bread, cakes, pies, cooking, doughnuts and bakery goods than others and it is common sense the one that has the trade carries the goods. We have both. Our shelves are always well stocked with first class goods. We employ only expert bakers and our delivery service is matchless.
